It was another week in which there was a substantial rise in the market on Tuesday, followed by a steady on Wednesday. There were very good rises across the Merino types on Tuesday that were greatest among the broader types. Advice from wool trade is that an onset of cold weather in China lead to an increase in demand for wool at retail.

There were also media reports of China responding to the energy issues during the week.

The US Exchange Rate continued its upward path when it finished 1.59¢ (2.2%) higher to close at 74.99¢ on Wednesday. It was the first time that it has exceeded 74¢ this season

In the usual pattern, buyers for China were dominant with support from buyers for Europe and India.

Looking ahead, offerings for the coming three sales are expected to range from 39,377 bales to 45,755 bales and to be 28.2% more than in the same period last year. The forecast progressive difference to Week 19 is 31.2%.

In other countries, the South African Cape Wools Indicator was up by 2.2% since last week against a 2.4% appreciation of the Rand against the US Dollar and a 1.7% appreciation against the Euro.
